Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act Basics

Credit Reporting laws follow most consumer protection laws. They help define the legal rights of the consumer and limit the power of the creditor. They give relief where the consumer is infringed on, and provide the legal discourse the consumer can take for corrective action. These are great laws and unfortunately most people are unaware of them and do not take full advantage of the protection they're afforded. Samaritan Credit uses these laws in the defense of their clients against improper reporting by the credit reporting agencies. These laws are effective and inclusive.

The Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) is designed to promote accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of every Consumer Reporting Agency (CRA). Most CRAs are credit bureaus that gather and sell information about you - such as if you pay your bills on time or if you've filed bankruptcy -- to creditors, employers, landlords, and other businesses. You can find the complete text of the FCRA, 15 U.S.C. 1681-1681u, at the Federal Trade Commission's web site (<http://www.ftc.gov/os/statutes/fcrajump.htm>). The FCRA gives you specific rights, as outlined below. You may have additional rights under state law. You may contact a state or local consumer protection agency or a state attorney general to learn those rights.

You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses information from a CRA to take action against you -- such as denying an application for credit, insurance, or employment -- must tell you, and give you the name, address, and phone number of the CRA that provided the consumer report.

You have the right to know what is on your report. At your request, a CRA must give you the information in your file and a list of everyone who has requested it recently. There is no charge for the report if a person has taken action against you because of information supplied by the CRA if you request the report within 60 days of receiving notice of the action. You also entitled to a free credit report from each of the three credit reporting agencies (Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion) once every 12 months. You can request all three reports at once, or space them out throughout the year.

You can dispute inaccurate information with the CRA. If you tell a CRA that your file contains inaccurate information, the CRA must investigate the items (usually within 30 days) by presenting to its information source all relevant evidence you submit, unless your dispute is frivolous. The source must review your evidence and report its findings to the CRA. (The source also must advise national CRA's to which it has provided the data -- of any error.) The CRA must give you a written report of the investigation, and a copy of your report if the investigation results in any change. If the CRA's investigation does not resolve the dispute, you may add a brief statement to your file. The CRA must normally include a summary of your statement in future reports. If an item is deleted or a dispute statement is filed, you may ask that anyone who has recently received your report be notified of the change.

Questions about how to improve your credit? (646) 396-0448 info@samaritancredit.com has answers.

Inaccurate information must be corrected or deleted. A CRA must remove or correct inaccurate or unverified information from its files, usually within 30 days after you dispute it. However, the CRA is not required to remove accurate data from your file unless it is outdated (as described below) or cannot be verified. If your dispute results in any change to your report, the CRA cannot reinsert, into your file a disputed item, unless the information source verifies its accuracy and completeness. In addition, the CRA must give you a written notice telling you it has reinserted the item. The notice must include the name, address and phone number of the information source.

You can dispute inaccurate items with the source of the information. If you tell anyone -- such as a creditor who reports to a CRA that you dispute an item, they may not then report the information to a CRA without including a notice of your dispute. In addition, once you've notified the source of the error in writing, it may not continue to report the information if it is, in fact, an error.

Outdated information may not be reported. In most cases, a CRA may not report negative information that is more than seven years old; ten years for bankruptcies. Access to your file is limited. A CRA may provide information about you only to people with a need recognized by the FCRA -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. If a CRA, a user or (in some cases) a provider of CRA data, violates the FCRA, you may sue them in state or federal court.

Your consent is required for reports that are provided to employers, or reports that contain medical information. A CRA may not give out information about you to your employer, or prospective employer, without your written consent. A CRA may not report medical information or employers without your permission. You may choose to exclude your name from CRA lists for unsolicited credit and insurance offers. Creditors and insurers may use file information as the basis for sending you unsolicited offers of credit or insurance. Such offers must include a toll-free phone number for you to call if you want your name and address removed from future lists. If you call, you must be taken off the lists indefinitely.

Samaritan Credit
Helping You On The Road To Good Credit

Strategy to clean up your credit www.samaritancredit.com

In this day and age, everyone needs credit, whether to buy a car or a house, obtain a loan or a credit card, even to get a job. Credit Reporting Agencies, or CRA's, are making a fortune selling your personal information to the many organizations interested in your credit history. Credit bureaus try to maintain accurate files about the consumer. However, due to the sheer magnitude of the information being entered into their databases, they frequently make mistakes that end up costing you tens of thousands of dollars. In the recent past, Trans-union, one of the largest CRA's, admitted in Court that nearly 50% of their files contained errors. Fortunately, the law is on the side of the consumer, and with the help of the government, you can have a perfect credit.

The Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act was enacted to help you! The law says that you can dispute any information contained in your credit report that you feel is not absolutely 100% accurate. You can demand from a CRA the deletion of records from your credit report related to late payments, charge-offs, repossessions, foreclosures, even bankruptcy. Believe it, THE LAW IS ON YOUR SIDE! These methods of credit repair are legal, honest, and the Federal Trade Commission governs them. You can have the CRA's remove anything you dispute successfully.

There are hundreds of Credit Reporting Agencies (CRA's) worldwide. However, the majority of prospective lenders use only three major agencies. The three major CRA's are EXPERIAN, EQUIFAX and TRANS-UNION. The Credit Reporting Agencies record and maintain personal information about you such as your social security number, birthday, address, employment, and financial history. Again, most CRAs strive to maintain accurate and up to date information, but because of to the sheer magnitude of the number of files contained in their data bases, (some CRA's handle upward of 75,000,000 files) human errors occur and mistakes are made.

When your files are incorrect or outdated, you do have rights under the FEDERAL FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT (FCRA).15 USC, SECTION 168L through 168T. This act was put into place to protect consumers from being judged unfairly because of inaccurate or outdated information. Learn more at www.FTC.gov.

Questions about how to improve your credit? (646) 396-0448 info@samaritancredit.com has answers.

You are entitled to dispute and question the accuracy of any information within your files, as often and at any time you feel necessary. The CRA has up to 30 days to investigate and respond to your dispute. If the CRA cannot provide confirmation of the incorrect information within 30 days, they must comply with the FCRA and remove it immediately from their files. If your creditor does confirm the information is indeed correct, it will remain on your credit history until it is scheduled to be taken off (up to a maximum of 7 years in most states). However, you do have the right to add a note of explanation about the negative information, as a "Consumer Statement" which will appear next to the negative information in your credit report.

When a CRA does not comply with the regulations of the FCRA, you can contact the Subcommittees on Banking, Credit and Insurance, and the Federal Trade Commission, which may bring legal action against the CRA. The CRA may also be liable for damages and attorney's fees. Unfortunately, until you obtain, examine and update your own file, errors and false information can cost you thousands of dollars on interest, insurance premiums, rentals, and can also cause you to be denied credit for home loans, auto loans, bank accounts and sometimes even jobs. Samaritan Credit has made it extremely easy for you to repair, maintain and build the ideal credit report. We have intentionally "cut down" the lengthiness of traditional "Credit Repair" packages, to make ours simple to understand, read and use. However, we realize that credit repair is like an oil change. A lot of people have the knowledge to do it themselves, but they rather save the aggravation, and let professionals handle it. If you run into any trouble, while attempting to fix your credit, help is just a click away.

Questions about how to improve your credit? (646) 396-0448 info@samaritancredit.com has answers.

How to get started

Your first step is to obtain a credit report from the 3 Major Credit Reporting Agencies.

- Go to <http://www.annualcreditreport.com>, obtain all three bureau reports.

If you do not have internet access you can request copies of your credit report from the three major Credit Reporting Agencies, (CRA's): Equifax, Experian and Trans-Union.

Rates vary among all different CRA's, and also from state to state. Typically, each credit report costs less than $9.50. You should call each CRA to confirm the exact cost of the report before sending any money.

Use contact information described on page 12 and below.

Once you determine the cost of the report, send Letter #1 (Request for Copy of Credit Report) to Equifax, Experian, & Trans-Union, along with your check or money order.

If you have been denied for any credit within the last 60 days based on your credit report, you are legally entitled to a copy free of charge. Send Letter #2 (Request for free copy of credit report) instead. It is important you receive reports from all three CRA's. It is also important to include in your letter of request photocopies of your Driver's license, statements of account, or utility bills that show your name and billing address clearly.

Send each letter certified mail/return receipt and wait for a response.

Send your Letter of Request to each of the following CRA addresses:

Equifax:

Equifax Information Services LLC

Post Office Box 740256

Atlanta, GA 30374 (Tel: 800-797-6987)

Experian:

Experian Post Office Box 2104

Allen, TX 75013 (Tel:800-397-3742)

Trans-Union:

Trans-Union Post Office Box 1000

Chester, PA 19022 (Tel: 800-888-4213)

Be persistent and do not give up if a creditor does verify that the questioned account is indeed accurate. You have the right to question the accuracy of your report as frequently as you feel necessary, and every letter* must be responded to.

Keep a record of all letters sent and responses received in the log on pages 35-38.

Analyzing the three credit reports

Highlight and make a separate list of any negative information you may find.

Remember: You will challenge every negative account you find with the letter* that corresponds to your own unique situation.

You will probably see an improvement on your credit report immediately. In most cases creditors will not take the time or have the information to verify or respond to your challenges.

How to identify negative information

Most credit reports consist of six basic categories:

- CREDITORS, ORLENDERS
- HISTORY OF ACCOUNT
- COMMENTS, REMARKS, DETAILS
- STATUS (when account was opened/closed & current status)
- PUBLIC RECORDS (taxes, liens, judgments, bankruptcies)
- INQUIRIES

Questions about how to improve your credit? (646) 396-0448 info@samaritancredit.com has answers.

These categories may vary, however CRA'S by law have to make it reasonably easy for the general public to understand. Many CRA'S show negative information as codes or symbols. Look for a key or a map to help understand what the codes mean, make note of and highlight any negative entries found.

Negative entries may appear as:

30/60/90 = 30, 60, 90 Days delinquent or past due.

P&L = Profit and Loss (Creditor considers debt uncollectible)

C/O = Charged Off (Bad Debt, Balance still owed.)

COLL = Seriously Delinquent, (usually sold to a collection agency).

REPO = Voluntary or involuntary repossession of merchandise. (usually associated with a vehicle)

BANKRUPTCY = Chapter 7, 11, 13.

SETTLEMENT = Paid less than full amount of debt owed.

JUDGMENTS, GARNISHMENTS, LIENS = Legally recorded.

DEBT MANAGEMENT/CREDIT COUNSELING = Enrollment in a financial help program that reduces interest rates and fees, implying you may be having financial difficulty, may also be reported as a third party paying your bills. Many prospective lenders will view this as a chapter 13 bankruptcy or hardship program.

Duplicate accounts = (Same account reported more than once.) = This will imply that you have more outstanding debt than you actually owe, and may lower your credit rating

Adding positive credit history to your credit report

There are several easy ways to add positive credit history to your credit report. This short chapter will give you all the important information necessary to instantly add serious points to your credit score and start building strong credit references right away.

Obtain pre-paid or secured credit cards

This is another easy way to begin building rebuilding positive payment history on your credit report. A prepaid or secured credit card is a credit card that holds your money as collateral for the credit you use.

Questions about how to improve your credit? (646) 396-0448 info@samaritancredit.com has answers.

There are many types of pre-paid and secured credit card accounts. The collateral used is always money. Most of these accounts require a security deposit equaled to the amount of the credit limit given plus a fee for the service. Other accounts are given a larger limit than the amount of collateral given. Not all of these types of accounts are reported to the credit bureaus, so if your goal is to improve your credit; be very selective in regards to the account you use. In addition, many of these types of accounts charge excessive fees. The yearly fee should not exceed $150 for an average and reasonable major credit card.

Obtain Secured Bank Loans

Obtaining secured bank loans is easy and allows you to acquire excellent credit references using a simple technique we call the "Three Loan Maneuver". You will need at least $1000 to perform this procedure and get the desired end result, BETTER CREDIT! You will apply for 3 loans with 3 different banks in 3 days.

On the first day take your $1000 to the 1st bank and request a secured personal loan with a minimum of 85% loan to value. This loan must be a minimum of a 12-month term, with minimum payments. This is the easiest type of loan to acquire because it is secured with cash. Most banks will loan 85% of the amount on deposit. Given the loan, the savings account becomes frozen. However, every time a payment is made, an amount equal to that payment becomes unfrozen, less a few dollars for interest. Ask that the loan be for at least one year, with minimum monthly payments. Monthly payments establish a payment history. You will not be turned down for this type of loan no matter what your previous credit history, and in most cases it will not be checked. If the loan officer is planning on checking your credit, and you have bad credit, tell them you are trying to re-establish your credit, and that a good credit rating is very important to you. In addition, make sure that this type of loan is reported to at least one of the major credit reporting agencies.

Once an $850 loan (85% of $1,000) is obtained, take that money to another bank the next day and open a second savings secured loan for $722.50. (85% of $850 = $722.50) Then you repeat the same step again by opening a third savings account of $614.12 (85% of $722.50 = $614.12). You will only be able to obtain 3 loans if you only have $1000 because each loan requires an equal amount of collateral plus interest.

Pay these loans off by doubling the minimum payment every month on time using the unfrozen funds that become available. Each time you make a payment you will free up funds that equal the amount you have paid minus interest. As long as you only use these funds to repay your secured savings account loan and you pay on time you will add positive credit references quickly. The interest rate should be very low and not cost you more than $30 per funded loan.

Make sure that the loans are not completely paid off for at least six months from the date that they were opened. This will ensure that they are reported to the credit bureaus. You also want to be sure that accounts are eventually satisfied or you may only be hurting your credit. By completing this easy and cost effective maneuver; you will have a minimum of three solid credit references added to your credit history and added a number of points to your credit score.

LETTER Explanation for Delinquent Payment

This letter is used for pleading with a creditor the fact that your untarnished credit report has been affected negatively because of one problem over many years of good payment history. You are asking the creditor to remove the negative information as a one-time courtesy based on your excuse.

To Whom It May Concern,

I have recently found that several of my payments to your account have been labeled as "late" on my credit report. These missed payments were due to:

I had been sick with the flu for almost three weeks, which caused me to loose almost a month's salary. Since then I have been working full time and I have caught up on all of my bills._

Questions about how to improve your credit? (646) 396-0448 info@samaritancredit.com has answers.

I have always paid my accounts on time in the past. Since the late payments occurred for the above justifiable reasons, please correct the payment history for my account at the following credit bureaus, which carry the history of my account with you:

Experian

Equifax

Trans-Union

It is imperative that my credit reflect the good business relations I have maintained with your company in the past. The corrections to the credit report will make it more representative of my financial habits. I sincerely hope you will not take into consideration my oversight with these late payments which, I assure you, will not occur again. I look forward to continuing our relationship for many years.

EXAMPLE LETTER Creditor Settlement Offer

This letter is meant for offering a settlement to pay off a debt that is owed. If the debt has already been sold to a collection company, you can probably settle for less than 50% of the original balance.

Questions about how to improve your credit? (646) 396-0448 info@samaritancredit.com has answers.

To Whom It May Concern,

According to your records, I owe an outstanding balance of $2,760, in reference to account number 00000000000.

I feel I have a moral obligation to pay this debt I owe; however, I do not have enough money to pay you in full. I would like to offer you a settlement amount of $1000 to consider this account paid.

Please accept this offer, as it is all I can afford. If you accept this offer; please send me a letter that you are in agreement to the following terms:

1. You accept a onetime lump sum payment of $1000 to satisfy my debt of $2760 owed to you.
2. You agree to cease collection attempts.
3. You agree to report to the credit bureaus Experian, Trans Union, and Equifax that this debt has been satisfied. Preferably that the debt has been paid in full; however, that decision rests on your shoulders.
4. You will send proof of satisfaction to me stating that the debt has been satisfied as soon as my funds have cleared.

When I receive your letter I will immediately send you the agreed amount so I can get this burden behind me. I appreciate your consideration of my offer and thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

LETTER Cease and Desist Letter

This letter is used to stop harassing phone calls from creditors and collection companies. It is imperative that you send this letter certified mail return receipt in order for it to be taken seriously and to protect you legally.

NOTICE TO CEASE AND DESIST COMMUNICATION BY PHONE

To Whom It May Concern:

Please limit your communication with me in writing only. If I receive any live telephone calls, or repeated dialing and hang-ups from your computer dialing systems, I will consider them to constitute harassment. Please be advised that unwanted telephone calls are a class 1 misdemeanor in this state and I will file a complaint against the caller (individually) and your company with my state's Attorney General. I maintain a telephone log of each call and calls attempted by your automatic dialers. Notice: This letter serves as written notice that I will make an audio recording of your call.

Please be advised that you have the right to remain silent. If you ignore this notice and contact me by telephone, you and your employees agree to allow me to make the audio recording of our conversation. You, and your employees, agree to allow said information to be used against you in a court of law.

I further demand a copy of your "written policy" for maintaining the "do not call" list, as required by the Telephone Solicitation Act ("TSA") and the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA). Federal Statutes impose a $500 fine against unwanted telephone solicitation. I do not want you to call me. If you call me, you agree to pay, on a for-hire basis, my telephone and equipment and time in answering your call at a rate of no less than $500 per call. I will only accept your written communication.

Be advised that I am not requesting a "verification" that you have my mailing address; I am requesting a "validation" (competent evidence that I have some contractual obligation to pay you).

The Federal Communication Commission can issue citations and fines against companies and individuals found in violation the FCC rules or TCPA guidelines.

Please govern yourself accordingly.

Sincerely,

EXAMPLE LETTER Demand for Validation

This letter is used to place the burden of proof on the creditor or collection agency that the debt in question truly belongs to you based on contractual law. If the creditor or collection agency is unable to provide specific documents, you may be able to delete the negative item from your credit report due to lack of documents.

Questions about how to improve your credit? (646) 396-0448 info@samaritancredit.com has answers.

Certified Mail Number: (0000-0000-0000-0000-0000)

To Whom It May Concern,

I am formally requesting that you validate all tradeline notations you have submitted to the three major credit reporting agencies by (Name of Collection Agency) or (Name of Original Creditor) for me, (Your Name Here) for account number (Original Creditor Account Number)

Due to possible inaccuracies in these CRA reports, I must demand that the validation I hereby lawfully request be in the form of a notarized statement by a person with original knowledge of the debt as it was constituted and who can testify that the debt was incurred legally, was not subsequently disputed as a result of returned, faulty, or recalled consumer products, was not utilized as a profit-loss tax deduction during the period it may have been payable, and was not claimed as a loss with any insuring entity during the period it may have been payable.

Please be advised that I am not requesting a verification that you have my mailing address; rather, I am requesting validation, i.e., competent evidence that I had some contractual obligation sans consumer protection encumbrance which incurred the original claims associated with this trade line.

Please know that you have 30 days from the tracked and confirmed delivery of this lawful notice to either answer these demands or to remove the associated negative trade line notations from the CRA reports. Any other action may constitute evidence of your intent to abridge one or more civil or other constitutional rights. Please be further advised that continued unsubstantiated reporting of possible inaccuracies to third parties may provide a basis for criminal complaints being filed in accordance with FDCPA, FCRA, and other federal statutes.

I look forward to a timely resolution to this matter.

LETTER 20 Addition of Consumer Statement

This letter is used to add a consumer statement of 100 words or less to your credit report. This statement should only be added if you have attempted to delete the negative items and you are unsuccessful. This letter will allow you to explain yourself for all to see.

To Whom It May Concern,

I recently disputed the accuracy and completeness of incorrect information on my credit report. Since reinvestigation has not resolved my dispute, I insist the following statement, without alterations, be included in my credit report to show the nature of my dispute for all to see:

I have always paid my bills on time. In October of 2004 my payment to MBNA was lost in the mail. I have disputed this late payment with the credit card company and they refuse to delete it from my credit report. Please take this into consideration when reviewing my credit application.

According to the Fair Credit Reporting Act 15 USC Section 1611i (b), I have the right to include the above consumer statement in my credit report. The Act also states that you are obligated to include my statement in any subsequent consumer reports that include the disputed information. Furthermore, because my statement contains less than 100 words, I demand that you include the full text of the statement in my report, without changes, alterations or summaries.

According to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, you are required to send me a free updated copy of my credit report including the above statement, within thirty days from your receipt of this request. This represents a reasonable period of time for completing this update, unless otherwise you notify me immediately. Please send the report to the current address stated below.

Helpful Tips

- ◆ Read this manual in its entirety and consult with an attorney if necessary before preparing any legal documents.
- ◆ Make several copies of all legal letters before using, so you will be able to use them again.
- ◆ Dispute any negative information you believe to be inaccurate or incomplete (Letters 3 and 18).
- ◆ Add any positive accounts not being reported, by using Letter #19, page 31.
- ◆ If negative information is proven to be accurate, you can always try to gain cooperation by reaching an agreement with the creditor.
- ◆ Have any verbal agreements put into writing.
- ◆ If an agreement cannot be reached, you can include a Consumer Statement for future prospective credit grantors to read when considering your credit application (Letter #20, page 32).
- ◆ When a creditor will not take the time and effort to respond to your request, you can have negative information removed from your file, regardless of its accuracy (Letter #5, page 17).
- ◆ Laws vary from state to state.
- ◆ It is highly recommended that you rewrite the letters and all correspondence by hand. In many cases, CRA's will make it a priority to handle your dispute or request more promptly simply because your correspondence is not perceived by them as originating from a credit repair clinic. We have included blank letters for your convenience.
- ◆ Always use a blue or black pen, never a pencil.
- ◆ It is always important to send all correspondence by certified mail to ensure receipt of documents as well as track and record time limits under which the CRA's have to respond.
- ◆ Be sure to include all personal information on every letter you send, such as name, birthday, social security number, current address as well as previous address.

Questions about how to improve your credit? (646) 396-0448 info@samaritancredit.com has answers.

◆ Sometimes during a dispute the CRA may temporarily remove from your credit history a negative item until it is verified. This represents a window of opportunity during which you may obtain the credit you need.

◆ Records on bankruptcy and tax liens may possibly be removed after two years because the Federal Government has stored that information in its Federal Archives. Chances are that the CRA will not receive a reply within the thirty days allowed by the FCRA to handle a consumer's dispute.

We hope this manual will help you in your credit restoration.
